

California State Assemblymember Eloise Gómez Reyes District Office Internship Program

California State Assemblymember Eloise Gómez Reyes was elected to the 47th State Assembly District on November 8, 2016. The district includes the cities and communities of Fontana, Rialto, Bloomington, Colton, San Bernardino, and Grand Terrace. The office of Assemblymember Eloise Gómez Reyes has ongoing internship opportunities for college and high school students to get directly involved in the state government's daily operations. Interns learn about how the California State Assembly functions and Assemblymember Reyes' role in representing the people of California's 47th Assembly District.

In the fast-paced atmosphere of a State Assembly office, it is important that interns possess a mature, professional manner. Interns must be well-organized persons who are able to take initiative, follow instructions, perform well under pressure and relate well with others.

General intern responsibilities include:

- Interact with City and State Agencies
- Attend Meetings with Local Community Leaders
- Attend City Government and Local Organization Functions
- Responding to constituent requests and other correspondence
- Assisting with special projects, including legislative research
- Assisting with constituent casework
- Assisting with event planning
- Administrative tasks, including filing and copying
- Other miscellaneous tasks, as required

Skills required:

- Effective and professional phone manner
- Computer experience
- Good typing ability
- Punctuality
- Attention to detail
- Ability to follow instructions
- Ability to complete tasks efficiently and thoroughly

This internship is unpaid. Therefore, we accommodate interns with a flexible schedule; nevertheless we ask for a minimum 10 hours per week. The office will work with applicants who are requesting to receive high school, undergraduate or graduate credit.

There is no application deadline. Interns are accepted throughout the year in the Assemblymember's District Office in San Bernardino.

To apply for an internship, please follow the instructions carefully.
